On the Ninth Step ...

The Ninth Step ...

Made direct amends to such people wherever possible except when to do so would injure them or others.

The Ninth Step Principle ...

The principle behind the Ninth Step is Freedom.

The Ninth Tradition ...

AA, as such, ought never be organized, but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve.

My Ninth Tradition Checklist ...

1. Do I still try to boss things at AA?
2. Do I resist the formal aspects of AA because I fear them as authoritative?
3. Am I mature enough to understand and use all the elements of the AA program — even if no one makes me do so — with a sense of personal responsibility?
4. Do I exercise patience and humility in any AA job I take?
5. Am I aware of all those to whom I am responsible in any AA job?
6. Why doesn't every AA group need a constitution and by-laws?
7. Have I learned to step out of an AA job gracefully — and profit thereby — when the time comes?
8. What has rotation to do with anonymity? With humility?

REMEMBER:
*"I am responsible . . .
When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of A.A. always to be there.
And for that: I am responsible."*
